PHOENIX LINEAR

The Phoenix Linear Woodheater will enhance any Australian home with its stylish looks and distinctive features.

This modern looking heater will turn a blank wall into the showpiece of your home as you become mesmerised by the flames burning in front of you.

NO FIREPLACE NECESSARY

Note: If the above heater is a minimum of 270mm off the floor, the hearth at the front can be 300mm.

With the Coonara Zero Clearance Box, you can install the Phoenix woodheater without the need of a conventional brick fireplace and chimney.

The Z Box allows you to install the Phoenix directly onto a floor using 50mm Hebel Blocks.

Detailed installation instructions, with clearances to combustible materials, are available from your Coonara dealer.
